

The Caribbean Awards for Excellence in conjunction with the UWI, UTT and Bocas Litfest will host a literary reading and conversation between writers Caryl Phillips and Robert Antoni on the topic of writing Caribbean history into metropolitan consciousness.

The event starts at 6 pm at UWI's Learning Resource Centre on Sat Oct 3. It is free and open to the public. I am attaching a photo of Bobby Antoni here, and an invitation for the event.

Prof Phillips is the ANSA Caribbean Awards Arts & Letters Laureate, 2013, and Mr Antoni is the OCM Bocas Prize Winner, 2014 for his novel As Flies to Whatless Boys.
