A Will and a Way: The Autobiography of Dr Anthony N Sabga

ANSA McAL Group Chairman, A Norman Sabga, EPP Chairman, Sir Shridath Ramphal, and patron of the Caribbean Awards for Excellence, Dr Anthony N Sabga, display a copy of Dr Sabga's Autobiography at the launch in Port of Spain on August 26, at the Central Bank Auditorium.

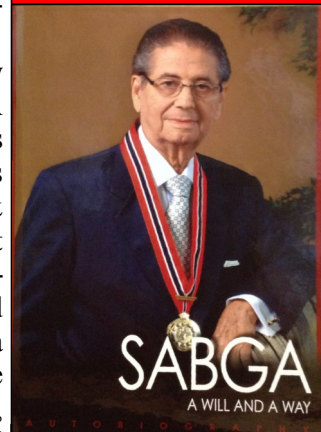

A Will and a Way, the autobiography of Dr Anthony N Sabga, was launched at the Central Bank Auditorium in Port of Spain on August 26, by Sir Shridath Ramphal, Chairman of the Regional Eminent Persons Panel.

Sir Shridath praised the book as an invaluable record of a personal history of one of the most remarkable men in the modern Caribbean.

Recalling that he had also been the Chancellor of the University of the West Indies in 1998, when Dr Sabga was presented with his Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree, Sir Shridath quoted from the encomium read on that occasion, which celebrated Dr Sabga's visionary leadership and entrepreneurial foresight.

The evening was chaired by Mrs Linda Hadeed, of the ANSA McAL Foundation, and Dr Sabga's eldest daughter. Also speaking was former chair of the Trinidad & Tobago CNC, Prof Bridget Brereton, who oversaw the co-writing and research with Raymond Ramcharitar. Mr Howard Sabga delivered remarks on behalf of Joe Sabga (Dr Sabga's brother-in-law), and Stuart McKenna, a friend and relative by marriage, also spoke on how the idea of a biography of Dr Sabga came about through their conversations.

Guyanese Laureate Launches New Book

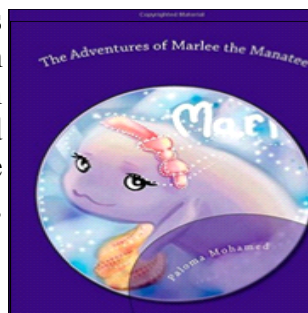

Our 2015 Arts & Letters Laureate, Dr Paloma Mohamed Martin recently launched a new book, The Adventures of Marlee the Manatee in Guyana.

Marlee is a children's book which is designed to teach children about the geography and natural habitat of Guyana as well as the wildlife.

This takes the form of Marlee's journey through the rivers and savannas of Guyana's landscape and encountering various other animals and people.

The book is available in bookstores in Georgetown, and also from the online retailer, Amazon.

Caz Phillips Comes to Trinidad in October

Our 2013 Laureate in Arts & Letters, Prof Caryl Phillips, has kindly offered to come to Trinidad to do a reading and lecture from his new book, The Lost Child.

The Caribbean Awards, in conjunction with The University of the West Indies, will host Prof Phillips along with 2013 Bocas Prize winner, Robert Antoni, author of the novel As Flies to Whatless Boys, on October 3, at the LRC at UWI St Augustine.

The event will take the form of a reading and conversation among the writers, moderated by Dr Raymond Ramcharitar, communications manager of the Anthony N Sabga Awards. It will be live streamed via the Internet.

Closer to the lecture date, we will post more details on Facebook. Please friend us if you haven't as yet.

Guyanese Launch of The Excellent Decade

*Dr Seeta Shah Roath and Gen Joe Singh present a copy of The Excellent Decade to Ms Gwyneth George, of the University of Guyana library*

2015 Science & Technology Laureate, Prof Suresh Narine speaks with 2010 Public & Civic Contributions laureate, The Hon Sydney Allicock.

The 2015 Guyanese laureates in Arts & Letters and Science & Technology, Dr Paloma Mohamed and Prof Suresh Narine, hosted a ceremony in Georgetown last month to present copies of our tenth anniversary book, The Excellent Decade, to the Guyana national library, and the University of Guyana library.

The event was well-attended by past and present laureates and members of the Guyana nominating committee and Gen Joe Singh, Guyana's representative on the regional Eminent Persons Panel. In attendance were Annette Arjoon-Martins, and The Hon Sydney Allicock, Guyanese Minister of Indigenous Affairs, and one of four Presidential Deputies in the David Granger administration.
